Building Strong Connections: Understanding Youth Substance Use Trends & Having Conversations That Matter

Presented by LICADD and EAC Network's Enhanced Long Island Parenting Institute

Open to all LICADD and EAC Enhanced Long Island Parenting Institute clients, as well as parents and caregivers who have been impacted by opioid or other substance use

Today's youth are navigating a rapidly changing world, and parents play a key role in prevention. Join us to learn about current trends in youth substance use, age-appropriate ways to talk with children and teens about drugs and alcohol, and practical, evidence-based strategies for fostering open communication, building trust, and supporting healthy decision-making. Walk away with tools and resources to help strengthen your connection with your child and navigate these important conversations with confidence.
